CHAP. 99.—Joint Resolution To provide additional compensation for employees of the Postal Service and making an appropriation therefor.

[Pub. Res., No. 19.]

Postal Service.
Increased pay for 1920 to designated employees.
Vol. 40, p. 1198.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That because of the unusual conditions which now exist, the compensation provided for in the Act entitled "An Act making appropriations for the Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920," approved February 28, 1919, the following classes of employees shall be increased as follows for such fiscal year only:

Third class postmasters and other specialized employees.

(a) Postmasters at offices of the third class; assistant postmasters and clerks, including clerks at division headquarters of post-office inspectors, special clerks, finance clerks, bookkeepers, printers, mechanics, skilled laborers, watchmen, messengers, laborers, and other employees of offices of the first and second class; letter carriers in the City Delivery Service; employees in Government-owned automobile service; supervisory officials, inspectors, railway postal clerks, including substitutes, superintendents, requisition fillers, packers, and laborers; the agent in charge, clerks, and messengers at the United States Stamped Envelope Agency, Dayton, Ohio; and employees of the mail equipment shop who receive compensation at the rate per annum of—

(1) Not less than $1,000 nor more than $1,200, to be increased $200.

(2) More than $1,200 and not more than $1,600, to be increased $150.
