INCREASE OF THE NAVY.

The Secretary of the Navy may use interchangeably the unexpended balances on the date of the approval of this Act under appropriations heretofore made on account of "Increase of the Navy," including any balance then remaining under the appropriation "Increase of the Navy, Torpedo boat destroyers," together with the sum of $7,500,000, which is hereby appropriated, and in addition thereto such amount, not exceeding $8,000,000, as may be realized at face value with accrued interest by the Navy Department, for application upon the obligations of the Navy Department for "Increase of the Navy" from any assignment, such assignment being hereby authorized, by the United States Shipping Board or the Emergency Fleet Corporation to the Navy Department of any obligation or debt or of any note or other securities held as security therefor owing to the United States Shipping Board or the Emergency Fleet Corporation or to the United States by any contractor to whom or to a subcontractor of whom the Navy Department may be obligated on account of supplies furnished or work done on account of "Increase of the Navy," for the prosecution of work on vessels under construction on such date, including the United States ship Maryland, the construction of which may be proceeded with under the terms of the treaty providing for the limitation of naval armament, concluded on February 6, 1922, published in Senate Document Numbered 126 of the present session; for the conversion into aircraft carriers, including their complete equipment of aircraft and aircraft accessories, in accordance with the terms of such treaty, two of the battle cruisers, namely, the Lexington and the Saratoga, the construction of which had been heretofore commenced, when the conversion of such battle cruisers shall have been authorized; for the settlement of contracts on account of vessels already delivered to the Navy Department; for the procurement of gyro compass equipment for destroyers not already supplied; for the completion of armor, armament, ammunition, and torpedoes under construction on April 8, 1922, for the supply and complement of vessels which may be proceeded with as hereinbefore mentioned, including not to exceed four hundred torpedoes of the destroyer type, and not more than $14,000,000 of the funds herein made available under "Increase of the Navy" shall be applied to objects of expenditure heretofore under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Ordnance; and for the installation of fire control instruments on twelve destroyers heretofore constructed, and such balances shall not be available for any other purposes.

That any officer of the Navy who has heretofore served four years as chief of a bureau in the Navy Department and shall be retired subsequent to the completion of such period of service for physical disability due to wounds inflicted by the enemy while in the performance of his duty shall be retired with the rank, pay, and allowances now authorized by law for the retirement of a chief of bureau.

No part of any appropriation made for the naval service shall be expended for any of the purposes herein provided for on account of the Navy Department in the District of Columbia, including personal services, except as herein expressly authorized.

That no part of the appropriations made in this Act shall be available for the salary or pay of any officer, manager, superintendent, foreman, or other person having charge of the work of any employee of the United States Government while making or causing to be made with a stop watch or other time-measuring device a time study of any job of any such employee between the starting and completion thereof, or of the movements of any such employee while engaged upon such work; nor shall any part of the appropriations made in this Act be available to pay any premiums or bonus or cash reward to any employee in addition to his regular wages, except for suggestions resulting in improvements or economy in the operation of any Government plant; and that no part of the moneys appropriated in each or any section of this Act shall be used or expended for the purchase or acquisition of any article or articles that, at the time of the proposed acquisition, can be manufactured or produced in each or any of the Government navy yards of the United States, when time and facilities permit, for a sum less than it can be purchased or acquired otherwise: Provided, That all orders or contracts for work or material, under authorization of law heretofore or hereafter placed with Government-owned establishments, shall be considered as obligations in the same manner as provided for similar orders or contracts placed with private contractors, and appropriations for such work or material shall remain available for payment therefor as in the case of orders or contracts placed with private contractors.

That the Naval Appropriation Act approved June 4, 1920, is hereby amended so that any chaplain in the Naval Reserve Force who was more than fifty years of age on the date of said Act, and who now holds the confirmed rank of commander, may be transfected to and appointed in the same permanent grade and rank in the regular Navy, not in the line of promotion and not eligible for retirement: Provided, That any chaplain transferred to the regular Navy in accordance with this authorization shall be wholly retired without pay upon attaining the age of sixty-four years or becoming physically incapacitated for active duty: Provided further, That nothing contained in this Act shall operate to increase the number of chaplains with the rank of commander as now authorized by law.

Approved, July 1, 1922.

CHAP. 280.—An Act Amending section 97 of the Act entitled "An Act to codify, revise, and amend the laws relating to the judiciary," approved March 3, 1911.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 97 of the Act entitled "An Act to codify, revise, and amend the laws relating to the judiciary," approved March 3, 1911, be, and it is, amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 97. The State of New York is divided into four judicial districts, to be known as the northern, eastern, southern, and western districts of New York. The northern district shall include the territory embraced on the 1st day of July, 1910, in the counties of Albany, Broome, Cayuga, Chenango, Clinton, Cortland, Delaware, Essex, Franklin, Fulton, Hamilton, Herkimer, Jefferson, Lewis, Madison, Montgomery, Oneida, Onondaga, Oswego, Otsego, Rensselaer, Saint Lawrence, Saratoga, Schenectady, Schoharie, Tioga, Tompkins, Warren, and Washington, with the waters thereof.
Terms of the district court for said district shall be held at Albany on the second Tuesday in February; at Utica on the first Tuesday in December; at Binghamton on the second Tuesday in June; at Auburn on the first Tuesday in October; at Syracuse on the first Tuesday in April; and, in the discretion of the judge of the court, one term annually at such time and place within the counties of Schenectady, Rensselaer, Saratoga, Onondaga, Saint Lawrence, Clinton, Jefferson, Oswego, and Franklin, as he may from time to time appoint: Provided, That suitable accommodations for holding court at such appointed place be furnished free of expense to the United States. Such appointment shall be made by notice of at least twenty days, published in a newspaper published at the place where said court is to be held. The eastern district shall include the territory embraced on the 1st day of July, 1910, in the counties of Richmond, Kings, Queens, Nassau, and Suffolk, with the waters thereof. Terms of the district court for said district shall be held at Brooklyn on the first Wednesday in every month. The southern district shall include the territory embraced on the 1st day of July, 1910, in the counties of Columbia, Dutchess, Greene, New York, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Sullivan, Ulster, and Westchester, with
