CHAP. 9.—Joint Resolution Authorizing the Smithsonian Institution to convey suitable acknowledgment to John Gellatly for his offer to the Nation of his art collection and to include in its estimates of appropriations such sums as may be needful for the preservation and maintenance of the collection.

Whereas Mr. John Gellatly has offered to the Nation his art collection for eventual permanent exhibition in the National Gallery of Art under the administration of the Smithsonian Institution; and

Whereas the National Gallery of Art Commission has recommended to the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution the acceptance of this collection on account of its high merit; and

Whereas the said Board of Regents have approved in principle this recommendation: Therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Smithsonian Institution is requested to convey suitable acknowledgment to the donor, and is authorized to include in its estimates of appropriations such sums as may be needful for the preservation and maintenance of the collection.

Approved, June 5, 1929.

CHAP. 10.—Joint Resolution Extending until June 30, 1930, the availability of the appropriation for enlarging and relocating the Botanic Garden.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the appropriation "Enlarging and relocating Botanic Garden, 1928 and 1929," contained in the Deficiency Appropriation Act approved December 22, 1927, is hereby continued and made available for the same purposes during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1930.

Approved, June 5, 1929.

CHAP. 11.—Joint Resolution To provide an appropriation for payment to the widow of John J. Casey, late a Representative from the State of Pennsylvania.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of $10,000 is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for payment to the widow of John J. Casey, late a Representative from the State of Pennsylvania. Such sum to be disbursed by the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives.

CHAP. 12.—Joint Resolution Making appropriations for additional compensation for transportation of the mail by railroad routes in accordance with the increased rates fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That to enable the Postmaster General to provide for the additional compensation due various railroad companies for inland transportation of mails in accordance with the increased rates fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission in case 9200, under orders dated December 8, 1925; January 5 and March 2, 1927; July 10, 1928; and February 9, 1929, the same being retroactive, the following sums are appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated:
For the inland transportation of mails by railroad routes for the fiscal years 1924 to 1929, inclusive, $39,000,000; and in addition to such sum there is hereby made available so much as may be necessary of the unexpended balances of the appropriations for inland transportation of mails by railroad routes for the fiscal years 1927 and 1928.

For payment of the judgments rendered by the Court of Claims and reported to the Seventy-first Congress in House Document Numbered 18, as follows: Under the Post Office Department, exclusive of interest as and where specified in any of such judgments, $3,997,089.50.

Provided, That any sums paid to a railroad company from the amounts made available by this joint resolution shall be considered for income-tax purposes as income for the taxable year in which such payment is actually received by such company: Provided further, That no part of the appropriations made available by this joint resolution shall be paid to any such company which does not waive all interest and claims for interest upon the principal amounts found to be due such company.

Approved, June 6, 1929.

June 7, 1929,
[H. J. Res. No. 61.]
[Pub. No. 6,] CHAP. 13.—Joint Resolution To amend the appropriation “Organizing the Naval Reserve, 1930.”

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provision, in the appropriation “Organizing the Naval Reserve, 1930,” reading “exclusive, however, of pay, allowances, or other expenses on account of members of any class of the Naval Reserve incident to their being given flight training unless, as a condition precedent, they shall have been found by such agency as the Secretary of the Navy may designate qualified to perform combat service as pilots of naval air craft,” is hereby amended to read as follows: “exclusive, however, of pay, allowances, or other expenses on account of members of any class of the Naval Reserve incident to their being given flight training unless, as a condition precedent, they shall have been found by such agency as the Secretary of the Navy may designate physically and psychologically qualified to serve as pilots of naval aircraft.”

Approved, June 7, 1929.

June 11, 1929,
[H. R. 3063.]
[Public No. 6.] CHAP. 14.—An Act To amend subsection (a) of section 26 of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended by the Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928, so as to authorize the allocation of the unallocated interest fund in accordance with the records of the Alien Property Custodian.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the second sentence of subsection (a) of section 26 of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended by the Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928, is amended by striking out the words “average rate of,” so that the sentence will read: “Such allocation shall be based upon the earnings (determined by the Secretary of the Treasury) on the total amounts deposited under section 12.”

Approved, June 11, 1929.
