For the inland transportation of mails by railroad routes for the fiscal years 1924 to 1929, inclusive, $39,000,000; and in addition to such sum there is hereby made available so much as may be necessary of the unexpended balances of the appropriations for inland transportation of mails by railroad routes for the fiscal years 1927 and 1928.

For payment of the judgments rendered by the Court of Claims and reported to the Seventy-first Congress in House Document Numbered 18, as follows: Under the Post Office Department, exclusive of interest as and where specified in any of such judgments, $3,997,089.50.

Provided, That any sums paid to a railroad company from the amounts made available by this joint resolution shall be considered for income-tax purposes as income for the taxable year in which such payment is actually received by such company: Provided further, That no part of the appropriations made available by this joint resolution shall be paid to any such company which does not waive all interest and claims for interest upon the principal amounts found to be due such company.

Approved, June 6, 1929.

CHAP. 13.—Joint Resolution To amend the appropriation “Organizing the Naval Reserve, 1930.”

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provision in the appropriation “Organizing the Naval Reserve, 1930,” reading “exclusive, however, of pay, allowances, or other expenses on account of members of any class of the Naval Reserve incident to their being given flight training unless, as a condition precedent, they shall have been found by such agency as the Secretary of the Navy may designate qualified to perform combat service as pilots of naval air craft,” is hereby amended to read as follows: “exclusive, however, of pay, allowances, or other expenses on account of members of any class of the Naval Reserve incident to their being given flight training unless, as a condition precedent, they shall have been found by such agency as the Secretary of the Navy may designate physically and psychologically qualified to serve as pilots of naval aircraft.”

Approved, June 7 1929.

CHAP. 14.—An Act To amend subsection (a) of section 26 of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended by the Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928, so as to authorize the allocation of the unallocated interest fund in accordance with the records of the Alien Property Custodian.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the second sentence of subsection (a) of section 26 of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended by the Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928, is amended by striking out the words “average rate of,” so that the sentence will read: “Such allocation shall be based upon the earnings (determined by the Secretary of the Treasury) on the total amounts deposited under section 12.”

Approved, June 11, 1929.
