Approved, June 18, 1929.

CHAP. 30.—An Act Making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of the “Agricultural Marketing Act,” approved June 15, 1929.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for carrying into effect the provisions of the Act entitled the “Agricultural Marketing Act,” approved June 15, 1929, including all necessary expenditures authorized therein, the sum of $151,500,000, to be immediately available, of which amount $150,000,000 shall constitute a revolving fund to be administered by the Federal Farm Board as provided in such Act, and $1,500,000 shall be available until June 30, 1930, for administrative expenses in executing the functions vested in the Federal Farm Board by such Act.

Approved, June 18, 1929.

CHAP. 31.—Joint Resolution To provide for the observance of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the death of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski.

Whereas October 11, 1779, marks, in American history, the date of the heroic death of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski, who died from wounds received on October 8, 1779, at the siege of Savannah, Georgia; and

Whereas the States of Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, New York, Minnesota, Maryland, New Jersey, Illinois, and other States of the Union have, by legislative enactment, designated October 11, 1929, to be “General Pulaski’s Memorial Day”; and

Whereas October 11, 1929, marks the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the death of General Pulaski, and it is but fitting that such date should be observed and commemorated with suitable patriotic exercises: Therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States is requested, by proclamation, (1) to invite the people of the United States to observe October 11, 1929, as the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the death of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski, Revolutionary War hero, by holding such exercises and ceremonies in schools, churches, or other suitable places as may be deemed appropriate in commemoration of the death of General...
