CHAP. 230.—An Act To extend to Government postal cards the provision for defacing the stamps on Government-stamped envelopes by mailers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Postmaster General is authorized, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to issue a permit to persons using Government-stamped envelopes and to persons using Government postal cards to deface the postage stamps thereon in connection with the placing on the envelopes and postal cards of the name of the post office and State of mailing, together with such other indicia as may be prescribed.

Approved, May 9, 1930.

CHAP. 231.—An Act To authorize the Postmaster General to charge for services rendered in disposing of undelivered mail in those cases where it is considered proper for the Postal Service to dispose of such mail by sale or to dispose of collect-on-delivery mail without collection of the collect-on-delivery charges or for a greater or less amount than stated when mailed.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, undeliverable parcels containing perishable matter may be sold and the amount realized, less a commission of 10 per centum, but in no case less than 15 cents, shall be remitted to the sender or other rightful owner.

Sec. 2. The Postmaster General may charge a fee of 10 cents for postal services in effecting delivery of collect-on-delivery mail upon terms differing from those originally stipulated at the time of mailing.

Approved, May 9, 1930.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to convey the tract of land delineated as United States School Reserve Numbered 3, containing forty-two thousand seven hundred and five-tenths square feet, on the plat of Wrangell town site, Alaska, approved September 12, 1917, together with a United States school building located thereon, to the town of Wrangell, Alaska, upon the conditions that the premises shall be used for school purposes only and that native children of Wrangell and vicinity shall receive, without discrimination, all school privileges enjoyed by other children.

Approved, May 9, 1930.

CHAP. 233.—An Act To authorize the Secretary of the Interior to investigate and report to Congress on the advisability and practicability of establishing a national park to be known as the Apostle Islands National Park in the State of Wisconsin, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, directed to investigate and report to Congress as to the desirability and practicability of establishing a national park to be known as the Apostle Islands National Park in the State of Wisconsin.
National Park, located in the northern part of the counties of Ashland and Bayfield, in the State of Wisconsin, and known as the Apostle Island Group in Lake Superior, for the benefit and enjoyment of the people of the United States and to preserve said area in its natural state, including in his report full information as to the ownership, value, estimated cost to acquire, and character of the lands involved and his opinion as to whether such areas measure up to national-park standards.

Approved, May 9, 1930.

CHAP. 234.—An Act To provide for the addition of certain lands to the Yosemite National Park, California, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That for the purpose of preserving and consolidating timber stands along the western boundary of the Yosemite National Park the President of the United States is hereby authorized, upon the joint recommendation of the Secretaries of Interior and Agriculture, to add to the Yosemite National Park, in the State of California, by Executive proclamation, section 1 and the north half of section 12, township 1 south, range 19 east, Mount Diablo meridian.

SEC. 2. That the provisions of the Act of June 10, 1920, known as the Federal Water Power Act, shall not apply to any lands added to the Yosemite National Park under the authority of this Act.

Approved, May 9, 1930.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of $20,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby authorized to be appropriated for the expenses of participation by the United States in the International Conference on Load Lines, to be held in London, England, in 1930, including travel and subsistence or per diem in lieu of subsistence (notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act), compensation of employees, stenographic and other services by contract if deemed necessary, rent of offices, purchase of necessary books and documents, printing and binding, printing of official visiting cards, and such other expenses as may be authorized by the Secretary of State.
