“Sec. 7. In addition to any forfeiture herein provided, any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding $200, or imprisonment for a term of not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

“Sec. 8. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the several States and Territories from making or enforcing laws or regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, or from making or enforcing laws or regulations which shall give further protection to large-mouth and small-mouth black bass.

“Sec. 9. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the shipment in interstate commerce of live fish and eggs for breeding or stocking purposes.”

Approved, July 2, 1930.

CHAP. 802.—An Act To legalize a pier and wharf at the southerly end of Port Jefferson Harbor, New York.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the pier and wharf owned by Edward Post Bayles and his wife, Mary L. Bayles, located on the north side of Surf Avenue, Port Jefferson, Long Island, and at the southerly end of Port Jefferson Harbor, Suffolk County, New York, be, and the same is hereby, legalized to the same extent and with like effect as if all existing or future laws and regulations of the United States as if the permit required by the existing laws of the United States in such cases made and provided had been regularly obtained prior to the erection of said pier and wharf: Provided, That any changes in said pier which the Secretary of War may deem necessary and order in the interest of navigation shall be promptly made by the owners thereof.

Sec. 2. That the right to alter, amend, or repeal this Act is hereby expressly reserved.

Approved, July 2, 1930.

CHAP. 803.—An Act To apply the pension laws to the Coast Guard.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of sections 4692, 4693, 4702, and 4703, Revised Statutes of the United States, with subsequent amendatory Acts, commonly known as the general pension law, be extended to the officers and enlisted men of the Coast Guard and their widows, children, and other dependents, under the same regulations and restrictions as are or may be provided by law with respect to officers and enlisted men of the Army and Navy.

Sec. 2. The benefits provided by this Act shall include claims for pension based upon diseases contracted, or death or injury incurred, in service and in line of duty, from and after the date of approval of this Act: Provided, however, That the date of commencement of pension granted hereunder shall commence from date of filing application in the Bureau of Pensions, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe.

Sec. 3. That no claim agent or attorney or other person shall contract for, demand, receive, or retain a fee of more than $10 for services in preparing, presenting, or prosecuting a claim for original pension under this Act; and no more than $2 in a claim for increase
