[CHAPTER 548.]

AN ACT

Providing for the publication of statistics relating to spirits of turpentine and rosin.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to collect and/or compile and publish annually, and at such other times, and in such form and on such date or dates as he shall prescribe, statistics and essential information relating to spirits of turpentine and rosin produced, held, and used in the domestic and foreign commerce of the United States.

Approved, August 15, 1935.

[CHAPTER 549.]

AN ACT

To prevent the fouling of the atmosphere in the District of Columbia by smoke and other foreign substances, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That no person shall cause, suffer, or allow dense smoke to be discharged from any building, stationary or locomotive engine, or motor vehicle, place, or premises within the District of Columbia. All persons participating in any violation of this provision, either as proprietors, owners, tenants, managers, superintendents, captains, engineers, firemen, or motor-vehicle operators, or otherwise, shall be severally liable therefor. The owners, lessees, tenants, occupants, and managers of every building, or place in or upon which a locomotive or stationary engine, furnace, or boiler is used shall cause all ashes, cinders, rubbish, dirt, and refuse to be removed to some proper place, so that the same shall not accumulate, nor shall any persons cause, suffer, or allow cinders, dust, gas, steam, or offensive or noisome odors to escape or to be discharged from any such building, or place, to the detriment or annoyance of any person or persons not being therein or thereupon engaged.

Sec. 2. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and directed to make and promulgate reasonable classifications and regulations for the installation and operation of combustion and all other devices susceptible for use in such manner as to violate the purposes of this Act, and the said Commissioners may from time to time alter, amend, or rescind such regulations and promulgate such amended or additional regulations as they may in their discretion deem necessary.
Sec. 3. Enforcement of this Act shall be upon information by the corporation counsel in the police court of the District of Columbia. Any person convicted of violating this Act or any regulation of the Commissioners made hereunder shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $500 for each and every such offense.

Sec. 4. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall be responsible for the enforcement of this Act and may direct the Police Department, the Health Department, or any officer or employee of the government of the District of Columbia to perform such service as necessary in connection with such enforcement. Appropriations are hereby authorized to be made to carry out the purposes of this Act, and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to include in their annual estimates provision for the expenses incident to such purposes and for personnel subject to the limitations of the Personnel Classification Act of 1923.

Sec. 5. All provisions of the Act approved February 2, 1899 (30 Stat. 812, ch. 79, sec. 5), which are inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

Approved, August 15, 1935.
