all other proper expenditures incident to carrying out the purposes of the Act, including the settlement of claims (not exceeding $500 each) for damage to or loss of private property resulting from the operations of the commission or its agents.

SEC. 7. The Secretary of War is authorized to undertake, at the request of the commission, such of its functions as it may delegate. The money herein authorized to be appropriated shall be available for the payment of any additional expense to the War Department caused by its operations for the commission, including the salaries of temporary employees.

SEC. 8. The decision of the commission as to the status as a veteran of anyone who is invited as such to attend the reunion at Gettysburg shall be final and conclusive.

SEC. 9. The money herein authorized to be appropriated shall be available for expenditure from and after the date of approval of the Act appropriating it and shall remain available until all obligations of the commission and its agencies have been satisfied.

SEC. 10. When the necessity for its use terminates, all property acquired by the commission shall be delivered to such depots or other installations as the Secretary of War shall designate, to be disposed of in accordance with laws and regulations relating to military property. Real estate, which may be leased to further the purposes of the commission, shall be restored as nearly as possible to its original condition when it is no longer required.

SEC. 11. The commission shall promulgate regulations governing the execution of this Act.

Approved, May 16, 1938.

[CHAPTER 223]

AN ACT

To amend the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) section 1 of title I of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937 is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 1. The assessor of the District of Columbia or any person designated by him for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return of personal property, tangible or intangible, for taxation or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, is authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda of any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear before him and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the assessor, or assistant assessor, shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. If any person, having been personally summoned, shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then in that event the assessor, or any assistant assessor, may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpoenas of

50 Stat. 675.

Assessment and collection, time limitation.

In case of a false or incorrect return, etc.

(b) Section 8 of title I of said Act is amended to read as follows: "SEC. 8. Taxes on property reported in any return filed by a taxpayer shall be assessed within two years after the filing of such return; and such taxes may be collected by distraint or by proceeding in court within three years after the date of the assessment of such taxes. In the case of a false or incorrect return, whether in good faith or otherwise, or of a failure to file a return within the time prescribed by law or of a failure to include taxable property or assets belonging to the taxpayer in any return filed by such taxpayer, whether in good faith or otherwise, the tax may be assessed at any time, and the tax may be collected by distraint or by proceeding in court within three years after the assessment of such tax."

50 Stat. 675.

(c) Title I of such Act is further amended by adding after section 9 thereof the following new sections:

Penalty for failure to make return of personal property for taxation.

32 Stat. 590.

"SEC. 10. Any person required to file a return or schedule, by the terms of an Act entitled 'An Act making appropriation¹ to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, and for other purposes', approved July 1, 1902, as amended, who shall fail or refuse to file the same within the time required by said Act as amended shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for each and every failure or refusal and each and every day that such failure or refusal continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the police court of the District of Columbia on information by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia in the name of the District of Columbia. The penalty herein provided shall be in addition to the other penalties provided in said Act of July 1, 1902, as amended.

court may require the production of and may admit in evidence so much of such returns or the facts shown thereby as are pertinent to the action or proceeding, and no more. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer or his duly authorized representative of a certified copy of any return filed by him in connection with his tax, nor prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns and the items thereof, or the inspection by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants of the return of any taxpayer who shall bring action to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding has been instituted for the collection of a tax or penalty and failure to file any return or schedule required by law. Any violator of the provisions of this section shall be subject to the punishment provided by section 10 of this title."

50 Stat. 676.

SEC. 2. Section 6 of title II of such Act is amended to read as follows:

Tax rate on insurance companies.

"SEC. 6. All such companies, including companies which issue annuity contracts, shall also pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sum of money as taxes equal to 2 per centum of their policy and membership fees and net premium receipts or consideration received on all insurance and annuity contracts on risks in the District of Columbia, said taxes to be paid before the 1st day of March of each year on the amount of such income for the year ending December 31, next preceding. Such tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes except (1) taxes upon real estate and (2) fees and charges provided for by the insurance laws of the District including amendments made to such laws by this title.

In lieu of other taxes; exceptions.

"Net premium receipts or consideration received" defined.

"Net premium receipts or consideration received" means gross premiums or consideration received less the sum of the following:

"1. Premiums received for reinsurance assumed and premiums or consideration returned on policies or contracts canceled or not taken.

"2. Dividends paid in cash or used by the policyholders in payment of renewal premiums.

Marine insurance excluded.

"Nothing contained in this section or in section 1 or 7 of this title shall apply with respect to marine insurance written within the said District and reported, taxed, and licensed under the provisions of the Act entitled 'An Act to regulate marine insurance in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes', approved March 4, 1922, as amended."

42 Stat. 401.

Motor vehicle fuel tax Act, amendment.

SEC. 3. (a) Section 2 of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for a tax on motor vehicle fuels sold within the District of Columbia and for other purposes", approved April 23, 1924, as amended by paragraph B of section 2 of title III of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, is amended by striking out subparagraph (f) and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

43 Stat. 106; 50 Stat. 677.

Term "highways" defined.

"(f) The term 'highways' means the right-of-way of streets, avenues, and roads, bridges, viaducts, underpasses, drainage structures, guard rails, signs, signals, curbing, and dikes, fills, and retaining walls necessary to support or protect the highway."

43 Stat. 106; 50 Stat. 677.

(b) Section 2 of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for a tax on motor vehicle fuels sold within the District of Columbia and for other purposes", approved April 23, 1924, as amended by paragraph B of section 2 of title III of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, is further amended by adding thereto a new subparagraph as follows:

"Improvement" defined.

"(j) The term 'improvement' means the betterment of a highway by construction, reconstruction, or resurfacing."

SEC. 4. (a) Paragraph (c) of section 2 of title IV of such Act is amended to read as follows:

“(c) Every registration under this title on or before the last day of February 1939 shall expire at midnight on the last day of February 1939, unless otherwise provided, and unless the time be extended by the Commissioners. Every registration under this title thereafter, unless otherwise provided, and unless the time be extended by the Commissioners, shall expire on the last day of February next succeeding the date of registration. Every such registration shall be renewed annually upon application made by the owner during the months of January and February, and by payment of the fees required by law, such renewal to take effect on the 1st day of March of each year. During the month of February it shall be lawful to operate a motor vehicle registered for the ensuing year commencing March 1 following. It shall be lawful to operate a motor vehicle registered for the year 1938 during the months of January and February 1939.”

(b) Paragraph (d) of section 2 of title IV of such Act is amended to read as follows:

“(d) Upon the sale or other transfer to another owner of any motor vehicle registered under this title, the registration thereof shall expire. The owner selling or otherwise transferring such vehicle may register another motor vehicle for the unexpired portion of the registration year upon payment of a fee of $1 and a sum equal to the difference between the registration fee originally paid and the fee computed for such other motor vehicle under section 3, in case the latter is the greater. Upon the death of a joint owner of a motor vehicle registered under this title the registration thereof shall be transferred to the survivor or survivors and the fee for such transfer shall be $1.”

(c) Section 3 of title IV of such Act is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 3. (a) There shall be levied, collected, and paid for each registration year for each motor vehicle operated in the District of Columbia and for each trailer operated or moved in the District of Columbia required to be registered hereunder the registration fees provided in this section.

“(b) Class A. For each gasoline-propelled passenger vehicle, including passenger vehicles licensed under paragraph 31 (b) or paragraph 31 (d) of section 7 of the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, approved July 1, 1902, as amended by the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1932—

“(1) When wholly equipped with pneumatic tires, the manufacturer's shipping weight of which is not more than three thousand five hundred pounds, $5; more than three thousand five hundred pounds and not more than four thousand five hundred pounds, $8; over four thousand five hundred pounds, $12.

“(2) When wholly or partially equipped with other than pneumatic tires, double the above fees.

“Class B. For each gasoline-propelled truck, tractor, and passenger-carrying vehicle for hire having a seating capacity of eight passengers or more in addition to the driver or operator, with the exception of passenger vehicles licensed under paragraph 31 (b) of section 7 of the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, approved July 1, 1902, as amended by the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1932—

“(1) When wholly equipped with pneumatic tires, the manufacturer's shipping weight of the chassis plus the weight of the cab and body is not more than two thousand pounds, $15; more than two thousand pounds and not more than four thousand pounds, $20; more than four thousand pounds and not more than six thousand

Fee, when registration received on or after September 1.

"(c) When application for registration of any motor vehicle is received by the director on or after September 1, the registration fee for such vehicle for the registration year shall be one-half the amount provided for the class in which such vehicle falls.

Deposit of proceeds from fees, etc.

"(d) All proceeds from fees payable under this title and all moneys collected from the motor-vehicle-fuel tax, and fees charged for the titling of motor vehicles, including fees charged for the issuance of permits to operate motor vehicles, shall be deposited in a special account in the Treasury of the United States entirely to the credit of the District of Columbia and shall be appropriated and used solely and exclusively for the following purposes:

Uses designated. Highways, construction, etc.

"(1) For construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of public highways, including the necessary administrative expenses in connection therewith;

Traffic control expenses.

"(2) For the expenses of the office of the director of vehicles and traffic incident to the regulation and control of traffic and the administration of the same; and Police control. Provision. Limitation on expenditure.

"(3) For the expenses necessarily involved in the police control, regulation, and administration of traffic upon the highways: Provided, however, That the total amount to be expended under this item shall not exceed 15 per centum of the total amount appropriated for pay and allowances of officers and members of the Metropolitan Police force.

Designated appropriations for 1938 payable from special fund.

"For the fiscal year 1938 all moneys appropriated for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of highways and administrative expenses in connection therewith; all moneys appropriated for the department of vehicles and traffic; and 15 per centum of all moneys appropriated for pay and allowances for officers and members of the Metropolitan Police force shall be paid from and chargeable against the fund hereby created."

50 Stat. 684.

SEC. 5. (a) Title V of such Act is amended by adding to section 1 thereof the following new subsections:

“(j) Whenever any person shall exercise a general power of appointment derived from any disposition of property, made either before or after the passage of this title, such appointment, when made, shall be deemed a transfer taxable, under the provisions of this title, in the same manner as though the property to which such appointment relates belonged absolutely to the donee of such power; and whenever any person possessing such power of appointment so derived shall omit or fail to exercise the same within the time provided therefor, in whole or in part, a transfer taxable under the provisions of this title shall be deemed to take place to the extent of such omissions or failure in the same manner as though the person or persons thereby becoming entitled to the possession or enjoyment of the property to which such power related had succeeded thereto by the will of the donee of the power failing to exercise such power, taking effect at the time of such omission or failure.

“(k) The doctrine of equitable conversion shall not be invoked in the assessment of taxes under this title.”

(b) Section 3 of title V of such Act is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 3. The appraisal thus made shall be deemed and taken to be the true value of the said property or interest therein upon which the said tax shall be paid, and the amount of said tax and the tax imposed by article II of this title shall be a lien on said property or interest therein for the period of ten years from the date of death of the decedent: Provided, however, That such lien shall not attach to any personal property sold or disposed of for value by an administrator, executor, or collector, of the estate of such decedent appointed by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or by a trustee appointed under a will filed with the register of wills of the District of Columbia or by order of said court, or his successor approved by said court, but a lien for said taxes shall attach on all property acquired in substitution therefor for a period of ten years after the acquisition of such substituted property: And provided further, That such lien upon such substituted property shall, upon sale by such personal representatives, be extinguished and shall reattach in the manner as provided with respect of such original property.”

(c) Section 7 of title V of such Act is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 7. Every person entitled to receive property taxable under section 1 hereof, which property is not under the control of a personal representative, and is over $1,000 in value, shall, within six months after the death of the decedent, report under oath to the assessor, on forms provided for that purpose, an itemized schedule of all property (real, personal, and mixed) received or to be received by such person; the market value of the same at the time of the death of the decedent and the relationship of such person to the decedent; and any other information which the assessor may require. The tax on the transfer of any such property shall be paid by such person to the collector of taxes within nine months after the date of the death of the decedent: Provided, however, That with respect to real estate passing by will or inheritance such report shall be made within fifteen months after the death of the decedent, and the tax on the transfer thereof shall be paid within eighteen months after the date of the death of the decedent.”

(d) Section 10 of title V of such Act is amended to read as follows:

“SEC. 10. In the case of any grant, deed, devise, descent, or bequest of a life interest or term of years, the donee for life or years shall pay a tax only on the value of his interest, determined in a manner as the Commissioners by regulation may prescribe, and the donee of the future interest shall pay a tax only on his interest as based upon the value thereof at the time of the death of the decedent creating such interest. The value of any future interest shall be determined by deducting from the market value of such property at the time of the death of such decedent the value of the precedent life interest or term of years. Where the future interest is vested the donee thereof shall pay the tax within the time in which the tax upon the precedent life interest or term of years is required to be paid under the provisions of sections 4 and 7 of this article, as the case may be. Where the future interest is contingent the personal representative of such decedent or the persons interested in such contingent future estate shall have the option of (1) paying, within the time herein provided for the payment of taxes due upon vested future interests, a tax equal to the mean between the highest possible tax and the lowest possible tax which could be imposed under any contingency or condition whereby such contingent future interest might be wholly or in part created, defeated, extended, or abridged; or (2) paying the tax upon such transfer at the time when such future interest shall become vested at rates and with exemptions in force at the time of the death of such decedent: Provided, That the personal representative or trustee of the estate of the decedent or the persons interested in the future contingent interest shall deposit with the assessor a bond in the penal sum of an amount equal to twice the tax payable under option (1) hereof. Such bonds shall be payable to the District of Columbia and shall be conditioned for the payment of such tax when and as the same shall become due and payable. The tax upon the transfer of future interests or remainders shall be a lien upon the property or interest transferred from the date of the death of the decedent creating the interests and shall remain in force and effect until ten years after the date when such remainder or future interest shall become vested in the donee thereof. If the tax upon the transfer of a contingent future interest is paid before the same shall become vested, such tax shall be paid by the personal representative out of the corpus of the estate of the decedent, otherwise by the person or persons entitled to receive the same."

(e) Section 13 of title V of such Act is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 13. Any person required by this title to file a return who fails to file such return within the time prescribed by this title, or within such additional time as may be granted under regulations promulgated by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, shall become liable in his own person and estate to the District of Columbia in an amount equal to 10 per centum of the tax found to be due. In case any person required by this title to file a return knowingly files a false or fraudulent return, he shall become liable in his own person and estate to the said District in an amount equal to 50 per centum of the tax found to be due. Such amounts shall be collected in the same manner as is herein provided for the collection of the taxes levied under this title."

(f) Section 16 of title V of such Act is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 16. No person holding, within the District of Columbia, tangible or intangible assets of any resident or nonresident decedent shall deliver or transfer the same or any part thereof to any person other than an executor, administrator, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, unless notice of the date and place of such intended transfer be served upon the assessor of the District of Columbia at least ten days prior to such delivery or transfer, nor shall any person holding, within the District of Columbia, any assets of a resident or nonresident decedent deliver or transfer the same or any part thereof to any person other than an executor, administrator, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by said District Court without retaining a sufficient portion or amount thereof to pay any tax which may be assessed on account of the transfer of such assets under the provisions of this article and article II without an order from the assessor of the District of Columbia authorizing such transfer. It shall be lawful for the assessor of the District of Columbia personally, or by his representatives, to examine said assets at any time before such delivery or transfer. Failure to serve such notice or to allow such examination or to retain as herein required a sufficient portion or amount to pay the taxes imposed by this title shall render such person liable to the payment of such taxes. The assessor of the District may issue a certificate authorizing the transfer of any such assets whenever it appears to the satisfaction of said assessor that no tax is due thereon. The lessor of a safe-deposit box standing in the joint names of a decedent and a survivor or survivors may deliver the entire contents of such safe-deposit box to the survivor or survivors, after examination of such contents by the assessor or his representative, without any liability on the part of the said lessor for the payment of such tax."

(g) Title V of such Act is further amended by adding thereto new sections as follows:

"SEC. 26. The Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Commissioners relative to any person subject to the taxes imposed under this title or relative to any person whose estate is subject to the provisions of this title.

"SEC. 27. A tax is hereby imposed upon the transfer of real property or tangible personal property in the District of Columbia of every person who at the time of death was a resident of the United States but not a resident of the District of Columbia, and upon the transfer of all property, both real and personal, within the District of Columbia of every person who at the time of death was not a resident of the United States, the amount of which shall be a sum equal to such proportion of the amount by which the credit allowable under the applicable Federal revenue Act for estate, inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes actually paid to the several States exceeds the amount actually so paid for such taxes, exclusive of estate taxes based upon the difference between such credit and other estate taxes and inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes, as the value of the property in the District of Columbia bears to the value of the entire estate, subject to estate tax under the applicable Federal revenue Act."

(h) The provisions of this section shall become effective at 12:01 ante meridian on the day immediately following the date of approval of this Act.

SEC. 6. (a) Title VI of such Act is amended to read as follows:

"TITLE VI—TAX ON PRIVILEGE OF DOING BUSINESS

"(h) The term 'original license' shall mean the first license issued to any person for any single place of business and the term 'renewal license' shall mean any subsequent license issued to the same person for the same place of business.

"SEC. 2. (a) No person shall engage in or carry on any business in the District without having a license required by this title so to do from the Commissioners, except that no license shall be required of any person selling newspapers, magazines, and periodicals, whose sales are not made from a fixed location and which sales do not exceed the annual sum of $2,000.

"(b) All licenses issued under this title shall be in effect for the duration of the fiscal year in which issued, unless revoked as herein provided, and shall expire at midnight of the 30th day of June of each year. No license may be transferred to any other person.

"(c) All licenses granted under this title must be conspicuously posted on the premises of the licensee and said license shall be accessible at all times for inspection by the police or other officers duly authorized to make such inspection. Licensees having no located place of business shall exhibit their licenses when requested to do so by any of the officers above named.

"(d) Licenses shall be good only for the location designated thereon, except in the case of licenses issued hereunder for businesses which in their nature are carried on at large and not at a fixed place of business. No license shall be issued for more than one place of business without a payment of a separate fee for each, except where a taxpayer is engaged in the business of renting real estate.

"(e) Any person not having an office or place of business in the District but who does or transacts business in the District by or through an employee or agent, shall procure the license provided by this title. Said license shall be carried and exhibited by said employee or agent: Provided, however, That where said person does or transacts business in the District by or through two or more employees or agents, each such employee or agent shall carry either the license or a certificate from the Commissioners that the license has been obtained. Such certificates shall be in such form as the Commissioners shall determine and shall be furnished without charge by the Commissioners upon request. No employee or agent of a person not having an office or place of business within the District shall engage in or carry on any business in the District for or on behalf of such person unless such person shall have first obtained a license as provided by this title.

"(f) The Commissioners may, after hearing, revoke any license issued hereunder for failure of the licensee to file a return or corrected return within the time required by this title as originally enacted or amended or to pay any installment of tax when due thereunder.

"(g) Licenses shall be renewed for the ensuing fiscal year upon application as provided in section 3 of this title: Provided, That no license shall be renewed if the taxpayer has failed or refused to pay any tax or installment thereof or penalties thereon imposed by this title as originally enacted or as amended: Provided, however, That the Commissioners in their discretion for cause shown may, on such "SEC. 4. (a) Every person subject to the provisions of this title, whose annual gross receipts during the preceding calendar year exceed $2,000, shall, during the month of July of each year, furnish to the assessor, on a form prescribed by the Commissioners, a statement under oath showing the gross receipts of the taxpayer during the preceding calendar year, which return shall contain such other information as the Commissioners may deem necessary for the proper administration of this title. The burden of proof shall be upon the person claiming exemption from the requirement of filing a return to show that his gross annual receipts are not in excess of $2,000.

"(b) The Commissioners, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return filed hereunder, or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, are authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda of any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the Commissioners shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then, and in that event, the Commissioners may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to such summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpoenas of that court.

"(c) The Commissioners are authorized and empowered to extend for cause shown the time for filing a return for a period not exceeding thirty days.

"SEC. 5. (a) For the privilege of engaging in business in the District during any fiscal year after June 30, 1938, each person so engaged shall pay to the Collector of Taxes a tax measured upon gross receipts in excess of $2,000 derived from such business for the calendar year immediately preceding, as follows:

"1. That with respect to dealers in goods, wares, and merchandise, where the spread or difference between the cost of goods sold and the sale price does not exceed 3 per centum of the cost of the goods sold, one-tenth of 1 per centum of such dealers' gross receipts; where such spread or difference exceeds 3 but does not exceed 6 per centum, two-tenths of 1 per centum of such dealers' gross receipts; and where such spread or difference exceeds 6 per centum but does not exceed 9 per centum, three-tenths of 1 per centum of such dealers' gross receipts; and where such spread or difference exceeds 9 per centum, four-tenths of 1 per centum of such dealers' gross receipts. The cost of such goods, wares, and merchandise sold shall be determined after considering the inventories both at the beginning and at the end of the period covered by the return and purchases made during such period, and such inventories shall be valued at cost or market, whichever is lower, and shall be in agreement with the inventories as reflected by the books of such dealers. The cost of goods, wares, and merchandise shall be the actual purchase price, including the prevailing freight rate to the dealer's place of business in the District. The burden of proving under which classification the taxpayer shall be taxed shall be upon the taxpayer, and, unless the taxpayer shall by proof satisfactory to the assessor show to the contrary, the spread or difference between the cost of goods, wares, and merchandise sold by the taxpayer and the selling price of such goods, wares, and merchandise shall be presumed to be in excess of 9 per centum of the cost of the goods, wares, and merchandise sold, and the taxpayer shall be taxed accordingly.

"2. All persons, other than those mentioned in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall pay a tax equal to four-tenths of 1 per centum of the gross receipts derived by such persons from such business.

"(b) If a taxpayer shall not have been engaged in business during the entire calendar year upon the gross receipts of which the tax imposed by this title is measured, he shall pay the tax imposed by this title measured by his gross receipts during the period of one year from the date when he became so engaged; and if such taxpayer shall not have been so engaged for an entire year prior to the beginning of the fiscal year for which the tax is imposed then the tax imposed shall be measured by his gross receipts during the period in which he was so engaged multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be 365 and the denominator of which shall be the number of days in which he was so engaged.

"(c) If a person liable for the tax during any year or portion of a year for which the tax is computed acquires the assets or franchises of or merges or consolidates his business with the business of any other person or persons, such person liable for the tax shall report, as his gross receipts by which the tax is to be measured, the gross receipts for such year of such other person or persons together with his own gross receipts during such year.

"SEC. 6. National banks and all other incorporated banks and trust companies, street railroad, gas, electric lighting, and telephone companies, companies incorporated or otherwise, who guarantee the fidelity of any individual or individuals, such as bonding companies, companies who furnish abstracts of title, savings banks, and building and loan associations which pay taxes under existing laws of the District upon gross receipts or gross earnings, and insurance companies which pay a tax upon premiums shall be exempt from the provisions of this title.

If a return required by this title is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient and the maker fails to file a corrected or sufficient return within twenty days after the same is required by notice from the assessor, the assessor shall determine the amount of tax due from such information as he may be able to obtain, and, if necessary, may estimate the tax on the basis of external indices such as number of employees of the person concerned, rentals paid by him, stock on hand, and other factors. The assessor shall give notice of such determination to the person liable for the tax. Such determination shall fix the tax, subject however to appeal as provided in sections 3 and 4 of title IX of this Act.
- Notice. "SEC. 9. Any person failing to file a return or corrected return within the time required by this title shall be subject to a penalty of 10 per centum of the tax due for the first month of delay plus 5 per centum of such tax for each additional month of delay or fraction thereof.

The mailing of such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which must be determined under the provisions of this title by the giving of notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing such notice.
- Notice by mail presumptive evidence of receipt. "SEC. 11. The taxes levied hereunder and penalties may be assessed by the assessor and collected by the collector of taxes of the District in the manner provided by law for the assessment and collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such assessment and collection.
- Collection of taxes and penalties. "SEC. 12. Any person engaging in or carrying on business without having a license so to do, or failing or refusing to file a sworn report as required herein, or to comply with any rule or regulation of the Commissioners for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this title shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for each and every failure, refusal, or violation, and each and every day that such failure, refusal, or violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. All prosecutions under this title shall be brought in the police court of the District on information by the corporation counsel or his assistant in the name of the District.

Except in accordance with proper judicial order or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for the Commissioners or any person having an administrative duty under this title to divulge or make known in any manner the receipts or any other information relating to the business of a taxpayer contained in any return required under this title. The persons charged with the custody of such returns shall not be required to produce any of them or evidence of anything contained in them in any action or proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the United States or the District, or on behalf of any party to any action or proceeding under the provisions of this title, when the returns or facts shown thereby are directly involved in such action or proceeding, in either of which events the court may require the production of, and may admit in evidence, so much of such returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are pertinent to the action or proceeding and no more. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer, or his duly authorized representative, of a certified copy of any return filed in connection with his tax, nor to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns and the items thereof, or the inspection by the corporation counsel of the District, or any of his assistants, of the return of any taxpayer who shall bring action to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding has been instituted for the collection of a tax or penalty. Returns shall be preserved for three years and thereafter until the Commissioners order them to be destroyed. Title IX—Tax appeals.

"TITLE IX—TAX APPEALS

Terms defined.

"SEC. 1. In the interpretation of this title, unless the context indicates a different meaning—

"The word 'tax' means the tax or taxes mentioned in this title.

"The word 'appeal' means the appeal provided in this title.

"The word 'Board' means the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia created by this title.

"The word 'Commissioners' means the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their duly authorized representative or representatives.

"The word 'District' means the District of Columbia.

"The word 'person' includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, association, corporation (domestic or foreign), trust, estate, or receiver.

"The word 'court' shall mean the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

"The word 'assessor' shall mean the assessor of the District of Columbia.

"The words 'Board of Equalization and Review' shall mean the Board of Equalization and Review of the District of Columbia.

"SEC. 2. The Commissioners, within fifteen days after the approval of this Act, shall appoint a Board of one person, subject to removal by the Commissioners, to be called the 'Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia', which person shall be a citizen of the United States. Such person shall be appointed for a term of four years, except such appointment as may be made for the remainder of an unexpired term. Any vacancy caused by death, resignation, or otherwise shall be filled by the Commissioners only for an unexpired term. Such person shall be eligible for reappointment. Such person shall be an attorney and in active practice of law for at least ten years next preceding his appointment.

“The salary of such person so appointed shall be $7,500 per annum. The Commissioners are authorized to employ such other personal services as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this title and to provide for the expenses of the Board. The salaries of employees other than the Board shall be fixed in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, but such employees shall be appointed without regard to civil-service requirements. The Commissioners shall include in their annual estimates such amounts as may be required for the salaries and expenses herein authorized.

“SEC. 3. Any person aggrieved by any assessment by the District against him of any personal property, inheritance, estate, business privilege, gross receipt, gross earnings, or insurance premiums tax or taxes, or penalties thereon, may, within ninety days after notice of such assessment, appeal from such assessment to the Board, provided such person shall first pay such tax, together with penalties and interest due thereon, to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia under protest in writing. The mailing to the taxpayer of a statement of taxes due shall be considered notice of assessment with respect of such taxes. The Board shall hear and determine all questions arising on said appeal and shall make separate findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall render his decision thereon in writing. The Board may affirm, cancel, reduce, or increase such assessment.

“SEC. 4. (a) The decision of the Board may be reviewed by the court as hereinafter provided if a petition for such review is filed by either the District or the taxpayer within thirty days after the decision is rendered. Such petition for review shall be filed with the Board, and shall be in such form as the Board by regulation shall provide. Upon such review the court shall have the power to affirm, or if the decision of the Board is not in accordance with law, to modify or reverse the decision of the Board, with or without remanding the case for hearing, as justice may require. The court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to review the decisions of the Board, and the judgment of the court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari in the manner provided in section 240 of the Judicial Code, as amended. The court is authorized to adopt rules for the filing of the record on review, the preparation of the record for review, and the conduct of the proceedings upon such review and, until the adoption of such rules, the rules of the court relating to appeals in cases in equity, so far as applicable, shall govern. The findings of fact by the Board shall have the same effect as a finding of fact by an equity court or a verdict of a jury.

“(b) The Board is authorized to fix a fee, not in excess of the fee usually charged and collected therefor by the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, for comparing and preparing the transcript of record, and to fix charges for supplying copies of testimony or copies of other documents and papers. The fees and charges so fixed shall be paid to the collector of taxes of the District and deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia.

“(c) The decision of the Board shall become final (1) upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for review, if no such petition be duly filed within such time; or (2) upon the expiration of time allowed for filing of petition for certiorari if the “SEC. 5. (a) The assessor of the District and the board of assistant assessors, with the assessor as chairman, shall compose a Board of Equalization and Review, and as such Board of Equalization and Review they shall convene in a room to be provided for them by the Commissioners, on the first Monday of January of each year, and shall remain in session until the first Monday in April of each year, after which date no complaint as to valuation as herein provided shall be received or considered by such Board of Equalization and Review.

Public notice of sessions.

Public notice of the time and place of such session shall be given by publication for two successive days in two daily newspapers in the District not more than two weeks or less than ten days before the beginning of said session. It shall be the duty of said Board of Equalization and Review to fairly and impartially equalize the value of real property made by the board of assistant assessors as the basis for assessment. Any five of said Board of Equalization and Review shall constitute a quorum for business, and, in the absence of the assessor, a temporary chairman may be selected. They shall immediately proceed to equalize the valuations made by the board of assistant assessors so that each lot and tract and improvements thereon shall be entered upon the tax list at their value in money; and for this purpose they shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessments, and in determining them they may raise the valuation of such tracts or lots as in their opinion may have been returned below their value and reduce the valuation of such as they may believe to have been returned above their value to such sum as in their opinion may be the value thereof. The valuation of the real property made and equalized as aforesaid shall be completed not later than the first Monday of May annually. The valuation of said real property made and equalized as aforesaid shall be approved by the Commissioners not later than July 1 annually, and when approved by the Commissioners shall constitute the basis of taxation for the next succeeding year and until another valuation is made according to law, except as hereinafter provided. Any person aggrieved by any assessment, equalization, or valuation made pursuant to this paragraph may within ninety days after July 1 of the year in which such assessment, equalization, or valuation is made, appeal from such assessment, equalization, or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 3 and 4 of this title.

“(b) Annually, on or prior to July 1 of each year, the board of assistant assessors shall make a list of all real estate which shall have become subject to taxation and which is not then on the tax list, and affix a value thereon, according to the rules prescribed by law for assessing real estate; shall make return of all new structures erected or roofed, and additions to or improvements of old structures which shall not have been theretofore assessed, specifying the tract or lot of land on which each of such structures has been erected, and the value of such structure, and they shall add such valuation to the assessment made on such tract or lot. When the improvements on any lot or tract of land shall become damaged or be destroyed from any cause, the said board of assistant assessors shall reduce the assessment on said property to the extent of such damage: Provided, That the Board of Equalization and Review shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessments between July 1 and July 15 and determine the same not later than August 1 of the same year. Any person aggrieved by any assessment or valuation made pursuant to this paragraph may, within ninety days after August 1 of the year in which said valuation or assessment is made, appeal from such assessment or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 3 and 4 of this title.

“(c) In addition to the annual assessment of all real estate made on or prior to July 1 of each year there shall be added a list of all new buildings erected or under roof prior to January 1 of each year, in the same manner as provided by law for all annual additions; and the amounts thereof shall be added as assessment for the second half of the then current year payable in the month of March. When the improvements on any lot or tract of land shall become damaged or be destroyed from any cause prior to January 1 of each year the said board of assistant assessors shall reduce the assessment on said property to the extent of said damage for the second half of the then current year payable in the month of March. The Board of Equalization and Review shall hear such complaints as may be made in respect of said assessments for the second half of said year between January 1 and January 15 and determine said complaints not later than February 1 of the same year. Any person aggrieved by any assessment made in pursuance of this paragraph may within ninety days after February 1 of the year in which such assessment is made, appeal from such assessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 3 and 4 of this title.

Rules of procedure.

“(e) Whenever application is made according to law for the reassessment or redistribution of taxes by reason of the subdivision of any tract of land in the District, the board of assistant assessors charged with the assessment of real estate in the District is hereby authorized and directed to reassess and redistribute any general or special assessment or tax levied or due and unpaid in accordance with provisions of laws for the assessment and equalizations of valuations of real estate in the District for taxation. The assessor shall promptly notify the owners of record of the land, the taxes of which shall be reassessed or redistributed. Notices in such case shall be served upon each lot or parcel owner if he or she be a resident of the District and his or her residence known, and if he or she be a nonresident of the District, or his or her residence unknown, such notice shall be served on his or her tenant or agent, as the case may be, and if there be no tenant or agent known to the Commissioners, then they shall give notice of such assessment by advertisement twice a week for two weeks in some newspaper published in said District. The service of such notice, where the owner or his tenant or agent resides in the District, shall be either personal or by leaving the same with some person of suitable age at the residence or place of business of such owner, agent, or tenant; and return of such service, stating the manner thereof, shall be made in writing and filed in the office of said Commissioners. Any person aggrieved by such reassessment or redistribution, may within ninety days after notice of such reassessment or redistribution, appeal from such reassessment or redistribution in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 3 and 4 of this title.

“SEC. 6. Any taxpayer who shall have paid within three years immediately preceding the approval of this Act any tax to the District involuntarily, and under circumstances which according to law would entitle such taxpayer to the right to sue at law for the recovery of such tax, may within ninety days from the approval of this Act, appeal from the imposition of such tax in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 3 and 4 of this title.

“SEC. 7. Any sum finally determined by the Board to have been erroneously paid by or collected from the taxpayer shall be refunded by the District to the taxpayer from its annual appropriation for refunding erroneously paid taxes in said District.

“SEC. 8. The Board shall adopt and promulgate rules of procedure in matters for determination by the Board under the provisions of this title.

"SEC. 9. The Board is hereby authorized and empowered to summon any person before it to give testimony on oath or affirmation or to produce all books, records, papers, documents, or other legal evidence as to any matter relating to this title; and the Board is authorized to administer oaths and to take testimony for the purposes of the administration of this title. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then and in that event the Board may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpoenas of that court.

Authority to take testimony, etc.

Summons.

"SEC. 10. No suit shall be filed to enjoin the assessment or collection by the District of Columbia or any of its officers, agents, or employees of any tax.

Certain suits forbidden.

"SEC. 11. Any notice authorized or required under the provisions of this title may be given by mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended, addressed to such person at the address given in any return filed by him, or, if no return has been filed, then to his last-known address. The proof of mailing of any notice mentioned in this title shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which must be determined under the provisions of this title by the giving of notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.

Manner of serving notices.

"SEC. 12. All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this title are hereby repealed.

Inconsistent laws, etc., repealed.

"TITLE X—REPEAL OF PROVISION FOR FEDERAL CONTRIBUTION

"There is repealed so much of an Act entitled 'An Act making appropriations for the government of the District of Columbia and other activities chargeable in whole or in part against the revenues of such District for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923, and for other purposes', approved June 29, 1922, as reads as follows: 'That, annually, from and after July 1, 1922, 60 per centum of such expenses of the District of Columbia as Congress may appropriate for shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia derived from taxation and privileges, and the remaining 40 per centum by the United States, excepting such items of expense as Congress may direct shall be paid on another basis; * * *' and that after June 30, 1922, where the United States is the owner of ground or the holder thereof in trust for the public, upon which improvements have been made at the joint expense of the United States and the District of Columbia, the revenues therefrom shall first be used to pay the United States 3 per centum of the full value of the ground as a ground rent, and the remainder shall be divided between them in the same proportion that each contributed to said improvements, and for such purposes the assessor for the District of Columbia shall fix the full value of the ground after he has first made oath that he will fairly and impartially appraise the same; and that after June 30, 1922, any revenue derived from any activity or source whatever, including motor-vehicle licenses, not otherwise herein disposed of, which activity or source of revenue is appropriated for by both the United States and the District of Columbia, shall be divided between the two in the same proportion that each has contributed thereto; * * *'.

Repeal of provision for Federal contribution.

42 Stat. 668.

"TITLE XI—TAX ON BEER

Tax on beer.

"The District of Columbia Alcoholic Beverage Control Act approved January 24, 1934, as amended, is further amended by adding at the end thereof a new section to be numbered 40 and to read as follows:

48 Stat. 319; 50 Stat. 802.

Levy of 50 cents a barrel, sold in the District of Columbia; exceptions.

"SEC. 40. (a) There shall be levied and collected by the District of Columbia on all beer sold by the holder of a manufacturer's or wholesaler's license, except such beer as may have been purchased from a licensee under this Act, and except such beer as may be sold to a dealer licensed under the laws of any State or Territory of the United States and not licensed under this Act, and on all beer purchased for resale by the holder of a retailer's license, except such beer as may have been purchased from a licensee under this Act, a tax of 50 cents for every barrel containing not more than thirty-one gallons and at a like rate for any other quantity or for the fractional parts thereof. Unless the Commissioners shall by regulation prescribe otherwise, the collection and payment of such tax shall be in the manner following:

Manner of collection and payment.

"(1) Each holder of a manufacturer's or wholesaler's license shall, on or before the 10th day of each month, furnish to the assessor of the District of Columbia, on a form to be prescribed by the Commissioners, a statement under oath showing the quantity of beer subject to taxation hereunder sold by him during the preceding calendar month and shall, on or before the 15th day of each month, pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia the tax hereby imposed upon the quantity of beer subject to taxation hereunder sold by him during the preceding calendar month.

Transportation restrictions.

"(2) No licensee holding a retailer's license shall transport or cause to be transported into the District of Columbia for resale any beer, other than the regular stock on hand in a passenger-carrying marine vessel operating in and beyond the District of Columbia, or a club car or a dining car on a railroad operating in and beyond the District of Columbia, for which a retailer's license, class C or D, has been issued under this Act, unless such licensee has first obtained a permit so to do from the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board. No such permit shall issue until the tax imposed by this section shall have been paid for the beer for which the permit is requested. Such permit shall specifically set forth the quantity, character, and brand or trade name of the beer to be transported and the names and addresses of the seller and of the purchaser. Such permit shall accompany such beer during its transportation in the District of Columbia to the licensed premises of such retail licensee and shall be exhibited upon the demand of any police officer or duly authorized inspector of the Board. Such permit shall, immediately upon receipt of the beer by the retail licensee, be marked "canceled" and retained by him.

Permits.

Regulations to be prescribed.

"(b) The Commissioners are authorized and empowered to prescribe by regulation such other methods or devices or both for the assessment, evidencing of payment, and collection of the taxes imposed by this section in addition to or in lieu of the method hereinbefore set forth whenever, in their judgment, such action is necessary to prevent frauds or evasions.

Deposit of tax collections.

"(c) The taxes imposed hereby, when collected, shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia."

Approved, May 16, 1938.
