expenses incurred or paid by the Commission under this subsection. For the purposes of this paragraph capital of the applicant represented by vessels of the applicant laid up or operated under this joint resolution shall not be excluded from capital necessarily employed in the applicant's business. The Commission may require that the vessels so laid up or operated be security for reimbursement hereunder.

(d) The adjustments and arrangements made under subsection (c) in respect of any vessel shall be subject to such readjustment or modification from time to time as may be deemed necessary by the Commission to carry out the purposes and provisions of this joint resolution.

(e) Moneys in the construction fund of the Commission shall be available for expenses of the Commission incurred in adjustments or arrangements made under this joint resolution.

Approved, June 29, 1940.

[CHAPTER 443]
AN ACT

To divest prize-fight films of their character as subjects of interstate or foreign commerce, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every film or other pictorial representation of any prize fight or encounter of pugilists, under whatever name, transported into any State, Territory, or possession, for use, sale, storage, exhibition, or other disposition therein is hereby divested of its character as a subject of interstate or foreign commerce to the extent that it shall upon crossing the boundary of such State, Territory, or possession, be subject to the operation and effect of the laws of such State, Territory, or possession enacted in the exercise of its police power.

SEC. 2. The Act entitled "An Act to prohibit the importation and the interstate transportation of films or other pictorial representations of prize fights, and for other purposes", approved July 31, 1912 (U. S. C., title 18, secs. 405-407), is hereby repealed.

[CHAPTER 445] AN ACT

To give the Supreme Court of the United States authority to prescribe rules of pleading, practice, and procedure with respect to proceedings in criminal cases prior to and including verdict, or finding or plea of guilty.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Supreme Court of the United States shall have the power to prescribe, from time to time, rules of pleading, practice, and procedure with respect to any or all proceedings prior to and including verdict, or finding of guilty or not guilty by the court if a jury has been waived, or plea of guilty, in criminal cases in district courts of the United States, including the district courts of Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Canal Zone, and the Virgin Islands, in the Supreme Courts of Hawaii and Puerto Rico, in the United States Court for China, and in proceedings before United States commissioners. Such rules shall not take effect until they shall have been reported to Congress by the Attorney General at the beginning of a regular session thereof and until after the close of such session, and thereafter all laws in conflict therewith shall be of no further force and effect.
