Ceylon

EXCHANGE OF PUBLICATIONS

Exchange of notes at Colombo January 4 and 31, 1949
Entered into force January 31, 1949

63 Stat. 2356; Treaties and Other
International Acts Series 1894

The American Ambassador to the Minister of External Affairs

American Embassy
Colombo, Ceylon
January 4, 1949

SIR:

I have the honor to refer to the conversations which have taken place between representatives of the Government of the United States of America and representatives of the Government of Ceylon in regard to the exchange of official publications, and to inform you that the Government of the United States of America agrees that there shall be an exchange of official publications between the two Governments in accordance with the following provisions:

1. Each of the two Governments shall furnish regularly a copy of each of its official publications which is indicated in a selected list prepared by the other Government and communicated through diplomatic channels subsequent to the conclusion of the present agreement. The list of publications selected by each Government may be revised from time to time and may be extended, without the necessity of subsequent negotiations, to include any other official publication of the other Government not specified in the list, or publications of new offices which the other Government may establish in the future.

Certain agreements between the United States and the United Kingdom were, or are, applicable also to Ceylon. See post, UNITED KINGDOM.

3. The publications shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress and on behalf of the Government of Ceylon by the Department of Information.

4. The present agreement does not obligate either of the two Governments to furnish blank forms, circulars which are not of a public character, or confidential publications.

5. Each of the two Governments shall bear all charges, including postal, rail and shipping costs, arising under the present agreement in connection with the transportation within its own country of the publications of both Governments and the shipment of its own publications to a port or other appropriate place reasonably convenient to the exchange office of the other Government.

6. The present agreement shall not be considered as a modification of any existing exchange agreement between a department or agency of one of the Governments and a department or agency of the other Government.

Upon the receipt of a note from you indicating that the foregoing provisions are acceptable to the Government of Ceylon, the Government of the United States of America will consider that this note and your reply constitute an agreement between the two Governments on this subject, the agreement to enter into force on the date of your note in reply.

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurance of my highest consideration.

FELIX COLE
Ambassador of the United States of America

The Honorable
DON S. SENANAYAKE,
Minister for Defence and External Affairs,
Colombo.

The Minister of External Affairs to the American Ambassador
MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
SENATE BUILDING
Colombo (Ceylon), 31st January, 1949

YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I have the honour to refer to your Note dated the 4th January, 1949, on the subject of the exchange of official publications between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Ceylon and to inform
Your Excellency that the Government of Ceylon agrees that there shall be an exchange of official publications between the two Governments in accordance with the following provisions:

[For text of provisions, see U.S. note, above.]

The Government of Ceylon considers that your Note and this reply constitute an agreement between the two Governments on this subject, the agreement to enter into force on the date of this Note.

Accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

D. S. Senanayake

Minister of External Affairs

The Honourable Felix Cole,

Ambassador of the United States of America,

Colombo.