WHEREAS at the City of Washington, D.C. on the twenty-seventh day of December of 1924 a Convention was concluded and signed between the Plenipotentiaries of the United States of America and the Dominican Republic, providing for the assistance of the United States of America in

Republic; and

WHEREAS the Government of the United States of America and the Gov-

the said Convention of 1924 in a manner satisfactory to both parties; and

WHEREAS the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Dominican Republic are both desirous of modifying the said
Convention to the advantage of both parties and at the same time of safe-

The President of the United States of America, represented by Cordell
Hull, Secretary of State of the United States of America, and

The President of the Dominican Republic, represented by Generalissimo
Rafael Leonidas Trujillo Molina, Benefactor of the Country, Ambassador
Extraordinary on Special Mission,

1 See exchange of notes at Washington Aug. 9, 1951 (106 UNTS 342; TIAS 2365).
2 TS 726, ante, p. 220.
Who, having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found to be in good and due form, have agreed upon the following Articles:

Article I

The Government of the Dominican Republic shall collect through its appropriate national officials the customs revenues of the Dominican Republic and all revenues pertaining to the customs duties. The General Receivership of the Dominican Customs provided for in the Convention of December 27, 1924, shall cease to operate on the day on which the Dominican Government undertakes the collection of customs revenues.

All property and funds of the General Receivership shall be turned over on that day to the Government of the Dominican Republic.

No claim shall be advanced by either Government against the other on account of any act of the General Receivership.

Article II

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Dominican Republic, in common accord, shall designate a Bank, with establishment in the Dominican Republic, as sole depository of all revenues and public funds of whatsoever nature of the Dominican Government. They likewise shall designate, by common accord, an official who shall act in the said Bank as representative of the holders of the bonds of the external debt of 1922 and 1926, in all matters that concern the service of the said external debt. If at any time the Bank so designated ceases for any reason to function in this capacity or if either Government shall deem a change advisable, a successor shall be designated under the procedure stipulated above. If the representative of the holders of the bonds of the external debt of 1922 and 1926 shall, for any reason, be unable to continue in that capacity, or if either Government shall deem a change advisable, his successor shall be designated in accordance with the same procedure established for the original designation. In the event that it should become necessary to designate a successor to either the Bank or the official representing the holders of the bonds of the external debt of 1922 and 1926, and in the further event that the two Governments should be unable to reach mutual accord on such designation within a period of three months, the Foreign Bondholders Protective Council, Incorporated, shall be requested to nominate said successor, and in the event of its failure to make such nomination the President or a Vice President of the American Bankers Association, or his duly authorized representative, shall be requested to make the nomination; provided, however, that neither a Bank nor a person previously rejected by either Government may be so nominated. In the event that a Bank or person is nominated in accordance with this procedure, the two Governments shall designate such nominee.
The official representing the holders of the bonds of the external debt of 1922 and 1926 shall, with the approval of the two Governments, designate a deputy to serve in his stead in the event of his temporary absence or incapacity.

Article III

During the first ten days of each calendar month the representative of the holders of the bonds of the external debt of 1922 and 1926 or his deputy shall receive, by endorsement and orders of payment which shall be issued to the Depository Bank by the Dominican Government through the intermediary of the Secretary of State for Treasury and Commerce, the sum necessary to cover monthly payments as follows:

1. the payment of one-twelfth of the annual interest charges of all of the outstanding bonds of the external debt of 1922 and 1926;
2. the payment of one-twelfth of the annual amounts designated for the amortization of the said bonds, including the interest of all the bonds which are or may be retained in the sinking fund. The said amortization shall be computed and effected in accordance with the loan contracts as modified by the agreement between the Dominican Republic and the Foreign Bondholders Protective Council, Incorporated, concluded on August 16, 1934, and by the provisions of Article V of the present Convention;
3. the payment of one-twelfth of the annual cost of the services rendered by the representative of the holders of the bonds of the external debt of 1922 and 1926, or his deputy, who shall receive salaries which are the subject of an exchange of notes attached hereto, which shall be given full force and effect as integral parts of this Convention, and a reasonable amount for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, and the payment of one-twelfth of the annual amount agreed upon between the Dominican Government and the Depository Bank as the compensation for the services of the said Bank.

No disbursements of funds of the Dominican Government shall be made by the Depository Bank until the payments provided for in this Article shall have been made.

The sums received by the above-mentioned representative for the service of the bonds shall be immediately transmitted by him to the Fiscal Agent or Agents of the loans.

Article IV

The Government of the Dominican Republic declares that the interest and amortization service of the bonds of the external debt of 1922 and 1926 as well as the payments stipulated in the third numbered paragraph of Article III of the present Convention, constitute an irrevocable first lien upon all of its revenues of whatsoever nature.
Article V

In case the total collections from all the revenues of whatsoever nature of the Dominican Government should in any calendar year exceed twelve million five hundred thousand dollars ($12,500,000) there shall be applied to the sinking fund for the redemption of bonds of the external debt of 1922 and 1926 which may be outstanding, ten percent (10%) of the excess above twelve million five hundred thousand dollars ($12,500,000) but less than thirteen million five hundred thousand dollars ($13,500,000), and in addition five percent (5%) of all sums exceeding thirteen million five hundred thousand dollars ($13,500,000).

Article VI

The representative of the holders of the bonds of the external debt of 1922 and 1926 shall have complete access to all records and books of the Depository Bank relating to the public revenues.

The Secretary of State for Treasury and Commerce of the Dominican Government shall supply monthly to the representative of the holders of the bonds of the loans of 1922 and 1926 complete and detailed reports, duly certified, of all the revenues and disbursements and other fiscal operations of the Dominican Government.

Article VII

The system of deposit of all revenues of the Dominican Republic shall be carried out in accordance with the Dominican laws of accounting and of the Treasury now governing such matters, and these laws as well as the powers conferred by this Convention upon the representative of the holders of the bonds of the loans of 1922 and 1926, shall not be modified by the Dominican Government during the life of this Convention without the previous consent of both Governments.

Article VIII

Any controversy which may arise between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Dominican Republic in relation to the execution of the provisions of the present Convention shall, if possible, be settled through diplomatic channels. Upon notification by either the Government of the United States of America or the Government of the Dominican Republic that, in its opinion, possibilities of settlement by this means have been exhausted, such controversies shall be settled in accordance with the procedure stipulated in the Inter-American Arbitration Convention signed at Washington, January 5, 1929,4 notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2 (a) thereof.

ARTICLE IX

The Convention signed by the United States of America and the Dominican Republic on December 27, 1924, shall cease to have effect, and the present Convention shall enter into force upon the exchange of ratifications which shall take place in the City of Washington within thirty days following ratification by the Government which ratifies the later in point of time; provided, however, that Articles I, II and V of the said Convention of December 27, 1924 shall continue in full force and effect until the two Governments agree that there have been adopted and put into operation all the measures necessary for the execution of the present Convention.

The present Convention shall continue in full force and effect during the existence of the outstanding external bonds of 1922 and 1926. After the redemption or cancellation of the said bonds, the provisions of this Convention shall automatically cease to have effect.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention in duplicate in the English and Spanish languages, both texts being equally authoritative, and have hereunto affixed their seals.

Done in the City of Washington this twenty-fourth day of September, 1940.
