Entered into force October 1, 1947

61 Stat. 4111; Treaties and Other International Acts Series 1862

The American Chargé d’Affaires ad interim to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs

AMERICAN EMBASSY
PORT-AU-PRINCE, October 1, 1947

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that my Government considers the conditions set forth in Article 11 of the Agreement between the United States of America and Haiti signed September 13, 1941,¹ at Port-au-Prince as having been met and, accordingly, my Government is happy to acknowledge that the provisions of that Agreement automatically cease to have effect on October 1, 1947.

It is the understanding of my Government that no claims shall be advanced by either Government against the other Government on account of any act of the citizens of the United States who have served as members of the Board of Directors of the National Bank of Haiti or as employees of the bank pursuant to the Agreement of September 13, 1941. I should appreciate it if Your Excellency would inform me whether your Government concurs in this understanding.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurance of my high consideration.

ROBERT H. McBRIE
Chargé d’Affaires ad interim

His Excellency
ÉDME MANIGAT,
Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs,
Port-au-Prince.

REPUBLIC OF HAITI
PORT-AU-PRINCE, October 1, 1947

Mr. Chargé d’Affaires,

I have the pleasure of acknowledging receipt of the note dated today in which you inform me that the Government of the United States of America considers the conditions of Article 11 of the Agreement between Haiti and the United States of America signed on September 13, 1941 as having been met, and that the said Agreement ceases to have effect today, October 1, 1947.

This Chancery has taken due note of the two points which are the subject of the aforementioned communication and concurs with the United States Government with respect to the second paragraph of your note.

Please accept, Mr. Chargé d’Affaires, the assurance of my very distinguished consideration.

Edmé Th Manigat

Mr. ROBERT H. McBRIDE,
Chargé d’Affaires ad interim
of the United States of America,
Port-au-Prince.
