The American Minister to the Minister of Foreign Affairs

RIGA, LATVIA
September 14, 1929

EXCELLENCY:

For the information of the competent Lithuanian authorities I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that Lithuanian citizens have the same right to register trade marks in the Patent Office of the United States as its own citizens, providing that the applications for such registrations are prepared and executed in accordance with the laws of the United States.

It is assumed that the Lithuanian Patent Office will register trade marks of American citizens if the applicants observe the laws and regulations when making application for such registration.

I will appreciate Your Excellency's confirmation of this reciprocal privilege in order that I may so inform my Government.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurance of my highest consideration.

F. W. B. COLEMAN
American Minister

His Excellency
A. Voldemaras,
Minister for Foreign Affairs,
Kovno, Lithuania.

The Secretary General of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs to the American Minister

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF LITHUANIA

No. 19175

KOJNO, OCTOBER 11, 1929

Monsieur le Ministre:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Note of September 14, 1929, in which you informed the Government of Lithuania that Lithuanian citizens have the same rights as American nationals as regards the registration of trade marks in the United States Patent Office, in so far as the application for this registration is prepared and executed in conformity with the laws in force in the United States.

I thank Your Excellency very much for this information, and now have the honor to inform you that American citizens will enjoy the same rights, under the same conditions, in the registration of their trade marks in Lithuania.

I avail myself, etc.

D. Zaunius
Secretary General

To His Excellency
Monsieur Coleman,
American Minister,
Riga.
