Excellency:

I have the honor to refer to Your Excellency’s Note No. 2537 of November 22, 1941, regarding the exchange of official publications between the Governments of the United States of America and of Panamá.

It is respectfully suggested that the exchange of official publications between our respective Governments may be carried out in accordance with the following provisions:

1. The official exchange offices for the transmission of publications shall be, on the part of the United States of America, the Smithsonian Institution; and on the part of Panamá, the Ministry of Foreign Relations.

2. The publications exchanged shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress; and on behalf of Panamá by the Ministry of Foreign Relations.

3. The Government of the United States of America shall furnish regularly one copy of each of the official publications included in the attached List No. 1. This list shall be extended to include, without the necessity of subsequent negotiation, any new important publications that may be initiated by any agency of the United States in the future.

4. The Government of Panamá shall furnish regularly one copy of each of the official publications included on the attached List No. 2, as well as any other publications which may be issued currently at the expense of the Government.

5. Each party to the agreement shall bear the postal, railroad, steamship, and other charges arising in its own country.

6. Both parties express their willingness as far as possible to expedite shipments.
7. This agreement shall not be understood to modify any agreements concerning the exchange of official publications which may be in effect between departments or instrumentalities of the two Governments.

If the Government of Panamá is in accord with the foregoing text, my Government will, upon the receipt of the corresponding note from Your Excellency, consider the agreement concluded and in effect from November 27, 1941.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
