The American Diplomatic Agent to the Minister of Foreign Affairs

Legation of the United States of America
September 7, 1944

Excellency:

I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that my Government has observed with friendly and sympathetic interest the accelerated transfer of governmental powers to the Syrian and Lebanese Governments since November 1943 and now takes the view that the Syrian and Lebanese Governments may now be considered representative, effectively independent and in a position satisfactorily to fulfill their international obligations and responsibilities.

The United States is, therefore, prepared to extend full and unconditional recognition of the independence of Syria, upon receipt from Your Excellency's Government of written assurances that the existing rights of the United States and its nationals, particularly as set forth in the treaty of 1924 between the United States and France,² are fully recognized and will be effectively continued and protected by the Syrian Government, until such time as appropriate bilateral accord may be concluded by direct and mutual agreement between the United States and Syria.

¹ Certain agreements between the United States and France were, or are, applicable also to Syria. See ante, vol. 7, p. 763, FRANCE.
² TS 695, ante, vol. 7, p. 925, FRANCE.
I am to add that, following the receipt of such assurances, my Government proposes to appoint an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary as its representative near the Syrian Government and would be pleased to receive in the United States a diplomatic representative of Syria of the same grade.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurance of my highest consideration.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that I have received with satisfaction your note dated 7th. September, 1944, in which you conveyed the view of the United States Government that the Syrian Government may now be considered representative, effectively independent and in a position satisfactorily to fulfil her international obligations and responsibilities; and that therefore the United States is prepared to extend full and unconditional recognition of the independence of Syria, upon receipt of written assurances that the existing rights of the United States and its nationals, particularly as set forth in the Treaty of 1924 between the United States and France, are fully recognised and will be effectively continued and protected by the Syrian Government, until such time as appropriate bilateral accord may be concluded by direct and mutual agreement between the United States and Syria.
