BRITISH STRIKE ON MILE FRONT

Halts Men Take Trench on Some With Slight Losses.

OFFENSIVE IS RESUMED

Advance Is Made on Road to Bapaume, Object of the Big Drive.

Washington, Feb. 11.—An attack by British artillery on the east coast of the Anzacs reached the limits of a series of seven trenches occupied on a front of nearly a mile. The British forces were in this attack, which emphasizes the fact that the German advance has not been checked. The Anzacs have been forced to retreat in some places, and are on the defensive in others. It is expected that a counterattack will be made by the British forces in the near future.

AMERICAN INDIAN IS FIGHTING FOR ALLIES

Lt. Long Lance of Colville Reserve Teacher With Yes From Trenches.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—An American Indian war hero is now fighting on the side of the Allies. Lt. Long Lance, a member of the Colville Reserve, has been given the rank of lieutenant and is now fighting on the side of the Allies. He is reported to have been wounded in action.

RAPID TRAFFIC REFORM IS URGED

City 3rd and Safety First Society Support Suggestion for Commission of Inquiry.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The 3rd and Safety First Society has suggested that the city establish a commission to investigate the question of traffic reform. The society believes that such a commission is necessary to improve the safety of the streets.

POLICY KINGS TAKEN IN BOMB SQUAD RAID

Twenty-one Men Rounded Up in Italian Colonies Where Life Was Cheap.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The Italian colonies in Washington have been raided by the bomb squad. Twenty-one men were rounded up and charged with violating the life laws.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The Senate has adopted two amendments to the revenue bill to aid in collecting taxes.

The first amendment provides for the establishment of the special revenue bill in order to secure international relief for the manufacturers. The second amendment provides for the reduction of the special revenue bill in order to secure international relief for the manufacturers.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The Senate

has adopted two amendments to the

revenue bill to aid in collecting taxes.

The first amendment provides for

the establishment of the special

revenue bill in order to secure

international relief for the

manufacturers. The second amendment provides for the reduction of

the special revenue bill in order to secure international relief for the

manufacturers.