The Hero of this Print is the gentle Mr. Stamper, who is carrying to the Family Vault his favourite Child, in a Coffin, as a Satellite, about 12 months old. Anti-Senatus, who reads the Burial Service, is the first in the Procession. After him follow Two Pillars of the Law, supporting Two Black Flags, on which are the usual Stamps, consisting of the White Rose united with the Thistle, supposed to have been originally contriv'd on the 'Thrift of June'. The expressive Motto of 'Stamper's孩 is preferred: but the Price of the Stamp is changed to 'Three Farthings', which the Budget explains: and the small Numb to deserv Notice to the Majority. Then Two remarkable Personages, them 'Jemmy Twitchett', with his 'Twas a great man; and Stamps returned from America. The unhappy Gang are separate...

Numbers, which are pointed at, are so contemptible in their size, that the Chief Mourners, Stamps, follows Mr. Stumpter, the celebrated Weaver and Lord Gavoza; after his friend and partner, Lord H——— Two Boats near the Fore Ground are two large Bales of Black Cloth arriving from the joyous scene that is opposite, on the other side of the River Thames. Where, along the shore, are open Warehouses for the Goods of different Manufacturing Towns now shipping for America. In the River are three First-rate Ships, the Rockingham, the Griffin, and the Conveyer. Among the Goods shipping off, is a large Cask, which is wrote upon a Statue of Mr. Pitt; this is heaving on board a Boat No. 270. There is another Boat near the First-rate, taking Goods in also; and is numbered 120. —N.B. The two Skeleton Heads, upon the Vault were Mourners born in the Rebellions of the Years 1715 and 1745.
