

Mission

We recommend positive changes to improve economy, efficiency, and effectiveness and to prevent and detect fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement at the Library of Congress.

What We Do

We conduct independent audits, investigations, and other reviews to deliver results upon which the Librarian of Congress and Congress can trust and rely.

Our Commitment

We will help the Library achieve its strategic goals of expanding access, enhancing services, optimizing resources, and measuring impact.

Goals

Improve economy, efficiency, and effectiveness.

Prevent and detect fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement.

Provide timely findings, recommendations, and investigative results to the Librarian of Congress and Congress.

Cultivate and maintain a diverse culture that inspires innovation, high performance, self-leadership, and accountability.

Contact Us

<https://www.loc.gov/about/office-of-the-inspector-general/contact-us/>

(202) 707-6314

101 Independence Avenue, SE LM-630 Washington, D.C. 20540-1060