

Build Work Management Skills: Project Management via LOC Learn

Online Learning Resource	Resource Type, Duration	Speaker	What You Will Learn:
What Matters Most to Make Projects Work	Video, 2 minutes and 22 seconds	Eddie Obeng	Conduct periodic “health checks” that score projects for 1) review processes that keep things on track; 2) planning, coordination, and risk assessment; 3) stakeholder engagement to ensure the desired outcomes; and 4) the leader’s skills and style.
Project Management Introduction	Course, 1 hour	N/A	This course covers key project management concepts and terms, and provides information about the variables that can influence project outcomes.
Project Fundamentals	Course, 51 minutes	N/A	This course covers the project and product life cycles and project phases, and introduces the process groups and knowledge areas in the PMBOK® Guide.
Producing Remarkable Projects	Video, 3 minutes	Michael Port	Rules for producing remarkable projects are, be passionate about the project or get passionate by developing new skills in the project, work with others, develop habits of commitment-making and fulfilling, and create a story about the project that lifts you up.
Getting Your Project Off the Ground	Course, 36 minutes	N/A	In this course you’ll find out about the importance of clarifying the main project elements at the beginning of project, as well as how to identify the key project stakeholders.
Plan a Bulletproof Project	Course, 29 minutes	N/A	Drawing on all the information from the initiating phase of the project, you must now define the work and resources required to meet objectives and complete the project. The plans you develop will help create the scope, cost, and schedule baselines to be used throughout the project.
Lead Your Project Like a Pro	Course, 31 minutes	N/A	There are three elements to perfect project performance: a high performing team, high quality deliverables, and effective communication. To manage a successful project, you’ll need a range of skills. You’ve got to communicate effectively, know how to measure performance in key areas, be able to build relationships with stakeholders to keep them engaged and be skilled in managing conflicts that may arise.
Complete Your Project On-Time and On-Budget	Course, 32 minutes	N/A	In this course, you’ll learn about some key aspects of controlling your project, including how to use compression techniques to control a schedule that’s fallen behind, how to use some basic calculations to help in controlling costs, and how to respond appropriately to change requests that arise during a project.
Project Management Knowledge Center	Skillssoft Learning Portal	N/A	The Project Management Knowledge Center targets business professionals new to project management, wanting to enhance existing skills, or seeking to obtain or maintain credentials.

LOC Learn contains the Project Management Institute (PMI)® training courses and practice exams for certification as a Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM)®, PMI Agile Certified Practitioner (PMI-ACP)®, and Project Management Professional (PMP)®.