

WELCOME TO THE 2011 NATIONAL BOOK FESTIVAL

You can get this map stamped with interesting state symbols from each of the state tables in the Pavilion of the States, brought to you by the Center for the Book (www.read.gov) in the Library of Congress, the Institute of Museum and Library Services (www.imls.gov) and the Chief Officers of State Library Agencies (www.cosla.org). Visit their websites to learn more about these great organizations. And be sure to stop at the Center for the Book table to complete your map.

There is an affiliated Center for the Book in each state, the District of Columbia and the U.S. Virgin Islands. These centers spread the word throughout the land that "books give us wings."

Visit the Center for the Book's website to find out where your state center is located and to learn about the exciting programs offered by your State Center for the Book.

YOUR MAP TO SOME GREAT BOOKS AND GREAT PLACES

Don't forget to check out the reading list on the back. It offers suggested books for each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia and the U.S. territories. Read your home state's book, and then discover other places by reading those states' books.

The Pavilion of the States is brought to you by the Institute of Museum and Library Services and the Chief Officers of State Library Agencies in cooperation with the Library of Congress's Center for the Book. Special thanks to Frannie Ashburn, director of the North Carolina Center for the Book, for coordinating the "Great Reads About Great Places."
